Romans 7:1-12

Literal Translation

1 Or are you ignorant, brothers, (for I speak to the ones knowing the law), that the law rules over the man for as long time as he should live?

2 For the married woman has been bound by law to the living husband; and if the husband should die, she is released from the law of the husband.

3 therefore then,while the husband is living, she will be called an adulteress if she should become another man's. But if the husband should die, she is free from the law, that she should not be an adulteress after having become another man's.

4 So that, my brothers, you yourselves also became dead to the law through the body of Christ, for you to become to another, to the One having been raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit to God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of the sins were working in our members through the law for the bearing of fruit to death.

6 But now we became released from the Law, having died to that in which we were held, so that we should not serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter.

7 ¶ What therefore shall we say? Is the law sin? May it not happen! But I did not know sin except through law; for also I had not known lust except the law was saying, "You shall not lust."

8 But after sin had taken opportunity through the commandment it worked out all lust in me; for apart from law, sin is dead.

9 And I was living without law once, but after the commandment had come, sin came alive again, and I myself died.

10 And the commandment which was for life, this was found to me for death;

11 for after sin had taken opportunity through the commandment it deceived me, and through it I died.

12 So that the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy and righteous and good.
